

Sailing Podcast Interview with Chuck and Linda, sv JACARANDA

Australian David Anderson has a Sailing Podcast program which he says “has become an avenue for me to share the stories of successful cruisers and sailors who have managed to leave the nine to five lifestyle and follow their dreams. My hope is that you will enjoy listening to their stories and find inspiration to plan your own escape.”

We were honored to be interviewed in December 2013. Listen to it here at <http://thesailingpodcast.com/sailing-to-panama/>

Thanks David for the wonderful New Years present!
